

The background of the poster is a vibrant, stylized illustration of a night scene. It features several large, dark trees with glowing yellow lights hanging from their branches. In the upper right, a purple dragon-like creature is flying. On the left, a blue TARDIS is visible. In the center, a pirate ship with a red target on its sail is on the water. Various characters, including a man in a top hat, a woman in a purple outfit, and several small white figures, are scattered throughout the scene. The overall color palette is dominated by purples, blues, and greens, with bright yellow highlights from the lights.
